

Expression of Interest under project “Identification of extent of forest land in forest fringe villages” for Project Data Manager.

Qualified persons are required under the NRAA Project title “Identification of extent of forest land in forest fringe villages” for ecological data entry/analysis, Sociological data entry/analysis, Remote Sensing data processing and report writing. The project data managers will be provided necessary infrastructure along with suitable remuneration while working for this Project. The initial project tenure is only upto March, 2016; however it may be extended based upon the requirement.

The details are as under:-

S.No	Position	Post required	Qualification/Experience
1.	Junior data manager (Remote Sensing & GIS)	One (1)	M.Sc. in Forestry/Environment Management/Environment Science/Botany in First Division from recognized University Desirable requirement: Well versed with data analysis and report writing.
2.	Junior data manager (Forestry)	Two (2)	M.Sc. in Forestry/Environment Management/Environment Science/Botany in First Division from recognized University Desirable requirement: Well versed with data analysis and report writing.
3.	Senior data manager	One (1)	M.Sc. in Forestry/Environment Management/Environment Science/Botany in First Division from recognized University with 2 years of work experience in similar kind of project. Desirable requirement: Well versed with data analysis and report writing.

Interested candidate are requested to send their applications and their Curricula Vitae/Resume to PI of the project; Director, Forest Research Institute (dir_fri@icfre.org) & Project Coordinator-cum-Head Forest Informatics Division (head_fi@icfre.org) by email latest by 17th February, 2016; 05.00 pm.

Head 11/02/16

Forest Informatics Division
Forest Research Institute
P.O. New Forest
Dehradun 248006 (Uttarakhand)