SECTION-II

Brief about FRI and Scope of the Work

The Forest Research Institute is an institute of the Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education and is a premier institution in the field of forestry research in India. It is located at Dehradun in Uttarakhand, and is one of the oldest institutions of its kind. In 1991, it was declared a deemed university by the University Grants Commission. Established as Imperial Forest Research Institute in 1906, Forest Research Institute (FRI) Dehradun is a premier institution under the Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education (ICFRE).

Organisation

Established as Imperial Forest Research Institute in 1906, Forest Research Institute (FRI) Dehradun, is a premier institution under the Indian Council of Forest Research and Education (ICFRE). Styled in Greek Roman Architecture by C.G. Blomfield, the main building is a National Heritage which was inaugurated in 1929The Institute's history is virtually synonymous with the evolution and development of scientific forestry, not only in India, but over the entire Indian sub-continent. Set in a lush green estate spread over 450 hectares, with the outer Himalaya forming its back drop, the Institute's main building is an impressive edifice, marrying Greco-Roman and Colonial styles of architecture, with a plinth area of 2.5 equipped laboratories, library, herbarium, arboreta, printing press and experimental field areas for conducting forestry research, quite in keeping with the best of its kind anywhere in the world. Its museums, in addition to being a valuable source of scientific information, are a major attraction for tourists.

Scope of Work:-

1. for lease of Shop (measuring area 38 m2 approximately) to facilitate official supplies to various offices situated under FRI Estate and households to the residents of the said Estate.: - Initially for a period of Eleven months (subject to review after six month by a committee). Further extension shall be of the sole discretion of Director FRI.

For the execution of each and every aforelisted activity, the selected bidder shall constitute the Second Party, while the FRI, Dehradun shall constitute the First Party. The selected government, semi-government, cooperative agency shall have to abide by the provisions of the Indian Council of Forestry Research & Education, the General Financial Rules (GFR), 2005, the relevant Labour laws and other applicable Rules and Regulations in vogue.
